If this were my grand finale as is tonight in some sense, the all or nothing, it', 'there', the time of my life, dead & gone tomorrow, or any other what? self instructive patterns to habituate the human pattern to, I'd choose to say: The ultimate Supreme Party would be an empathic orgy of folks I'd built up love with together for years who want themselves & want to be with my one another. Pedantory Question, how come we term the n out of colors? 'Ca we are a merry 'napoly of ~~sensitive~~ the savoury tastes, accelerated with non graspable grace, accumulated & perceptual waste... We stock our homes with sugared stalks of paste, our houses with fetid stocked "food items" to us consciously displace our fervent never satisfied fervent holes, and whole food plant based? You might as well be a pervert, hit you with some verbal mace. And, while your at it, beat like you could use some sherbert, I may be 500 pounds but come one, look at your figure, your waist, like a ~~stretcher~~ ~~digital carving for~~ Ethiopian, disgruntled & off kilter moon. But You'd say we're in a rat race too, well I love cheese & as long as our keeper is kind, what matter is it to us we're in a human zoo? Here, try a shot of persons some concentrated juice, do. Don't you dare make a comment about Hitler, the genocider, that's uncouth. We're simply interested in genetics, what's it to you? Has that fruit got to your head, cooked with fake News? Come on! You're jealous that I am a cannon baller, a raft, & you're a paddle of a canoe? How can you question the Bible, we'll pray from heaven, to do too!

Here I am in Hell, A celebrated haven for those heathens, witches, & pagans that remind you of an ear phase in school. It's dark cause we ain't paid the electric bill, & God is as the folks to be careful with the penchy Mardi Gras & the Mardi. Cults are always welcome, we have a strict no cart from the white market policy, juices are banned too. Samba always crowded, so veggies may have to do. We ask you to conserve your breath, be radical & free, dance & shake your hips your knees, & please, oh please, save the bees with some practical measures. It's no dreg measures contest, were the misguided misanthropes that heavenly Father just plain out refuse to open up an ear & thus we bad fairies are in a temporary refuge here. It's easier to hide in the cosmic cave of fear, apathesis, steer clear from words such as flamboyant & queer, it's too much for those who invited distrust in their subjective gender of the objective here. We're occultists, musicians, & initiates of chaos, bygones of bi for an empire of dynamic & deplorable sharks, oh yes, we grew that's a challenge. Jealousy & jive dances are paired well, envy & empathy, peaceful greed & abundant needs, knowledge is on what we feast, to each thine own, including the right of full experience for the "Beast." Your soul is your own, spirit is nor never will be on lease, the body decays into Nature, welcome, welcome, to Gay Hell, how was it, yes story, in T-Rex Heaven, Fabulistical if I may.

Danger of misusing flow, disarranged anything, what that word means I don't even know. Lost "it", time to self abuse & be a victim of my youth, ready, self set up, go! I have an excuse, it's the time spent in Academia rather than being allowed to geek. Classless class, I'm an elitist of my tunes, my merits permit me to be damn. Up early playing recorder at the zoo, I'm a weird-o, cheers A! at cher you crust a comrade who loves parody and could probably make an exit hill from the "boo's" which others see as mountains, me I'm ready to climb each of the two. Shower me darn I'm the one who was supposed to crawl up trees ooo, zoom! I'm trotting Mercedes, mastroteff & sharon, hooty hooty who? Am I anti semetic the closest I have about Metzitzah, thank you Clapper, Fuck Harvard I wanna dismantle the education caste system, it can't happen too soon. Binge thinkers, how would we commute without dual taxes on the road, am I speaking bird, dwelling, we have the technology to travel the galaxy, let's learn together rather than split & cleave the collective, I wanna do both, may I be a solo crew? A pilgrim who shares the experience w/ others, even if it's space flatulent, spaghetti clouds, or carefully seeded bad comets of my frozen poo. I wanna stay here to eat the food, berries & float amazed that space is like a sea depending on the speed I move. Maybe synthesize the experience come back, & with my antigravity tube, share space DNA that I harvested on the moon. Next stop mars, wonder if that's the crap that grew there before we nuked it, or after, those time is a spiral & who can cap infinity? Depends on which ceiling we boom...

Feeling like Houdini, a stroke to the stomach would very possibly prove fatal. Appalled by ghandi's wonder where they shit during the hunger strike, that's a distraction another from how he liked them young, toddlers & preteens. Is that all Politics, the peak of representative power being to prey on innocence, adhere to Truth & Right? Is the modern man impaired with their apprehension of the so called light? Depraved by wisdom that compels one to despise the notion of wrong thus so I write? Only to enjoy my cheek to be kissed by family when it's clear that's crossing a personal line, can you ask or award you too grotesquely deny & decry my right to be impolite? Are boundaries superstition as that oneness of which the point we are both arriving on a fatal mission to bring to fruition? Just because we share mutual like does not mean we can do anything which we both don't agree on, that disagreeable or should we commend that completion is a solace, strike, & rebirth an old psyche, fight, rather than share the beastly good, singularity & flight? Thereafter, if we try to close to the sun & melt, we not gamble born from others mistakes, why instead, let's forge allegiances with lies as the lay man is a force of literate in how we behave & act when we are deprived, we wanna be happy, not gay, responsibility is their objective, ours is to make it through the day & night & shit treetops down is obligatory fuck, while we're all wound up tight... Our treats are stimulants & the trick is to belief or brave & white, but to pretend when we're together we're color blind... that's business, meanwhile I'm busy loosing my mind. Found in the lost depth of time, I've come to realize, love will almost definitely be betrayed, a tragedy, a crime.

Hi Ashley. Going for an authentic write out of what I want to convey to you and y'all.

Staying with you + yours gave me hope while I was recovering from a lifetime of hate, blame, shame and fear of being me because I was made to distrust me by forces of this world we all recognize differently and having examples of courage like each of you exemplifies individually reminds me to keep making progress towards my artistic, scholarly and personal passions especially when life is so intense I often forget details, each of you has inspired me to be kind yet take "no" as a reply and mean it however I learn to express it and may we each look into our souls with admiration and every so often-frequently- consider we are worthy of all our dream ambitions else someone/some menys will keep the Truth Alive! With reciprocal hospitable interests

It should be. It is more than a "classic," as The New observed pointedly in an editorial. It has transcendant importance. Indeed, it is hard to conceive of anything being written that could be of more importance to the human race at this moment. For it makes real what any future war would mean to human beings. As no one else has yet succeeded in doing, Mr. Hersey brings the realities of this dread new weapon within the range of the weak imaginative powers ordinary mortals have. He does so simply, by following what happened to six
